
HUCP

The Acta Universitatis Carolinae – Historia Universitatis Carolinae Pragensis subtitled Příspěvky k dějinám Univerzity Karlovy (Contributions to the History of Charles University, AUC–HUCP) is a journal dedicated to the history of not only the Prague university but universities and institutions of higher learning in general. Moreover, it also publishes contributions to the history of education and schools, history of student movements, analyses of source materials, original historical sources, but also reviews and summaries of works on the history of education and an overview of ongoing research projects. All articles are provided with a summary in a world language, usually German and English.

The journal home site is on the webpages of the Karolinim Press.

This journal has been appearing since 1960 as part of the university series Acta Universitatis Carolinae and belongs to the category of peer-reviewed non-impact periodicals published in the Czech Republic .

The AUC-HUCP is included in the ERIH+ database (European Reference Index for the Humanities and Social Sciences).

An archive of all back issues since 2009 is available at the journal home website on the webpages of the Karolinim Press. The website also contains advice for authors , information about the composition of the editorial board , and other particulars.

Electronic version of the journal is available through the CEEOL database .

All volumes are accessible also at Czech Medieval Sources On-line .

New issues of the journal can be purchased at the Karolinum bookstore .

Current as well as older issues can also be ordered at the following address:

Univerzita Karlova v Praze,
Ústav dějin UK a Archiv UK,
Ovocný trh 5,
116 36 Praha 1
Jirina.Urbanova@ruk.cuni.cz

Contact:

petr.svobodny@ruk.cuni.cz
blanka.zilynska@ruk.cuni.cz

Univerzita Karlova v Praze
Ústav dějin UK a Archiv UK
Ovocný trh 5
116 36 Praha 1

ISSN 0323-0562
E-ISSN 2336-5730